

Salon / Dining Room

With views over the valley to the hills beyond, french windows lead onto the terrace and to the garden at the front of the property, whilst a side door leads out to the swimming pool.

For any cooler evenings in winter there is a wood burning stove.

The walls in this and other rooms in the house are hung with original paintings.

The house also has board games, a hi-fi, TV, video and DVD player.

Terraces / Swimming Pool

The middle terrace is ideal for lunches (either in the sun or out of the sun in the half covered area at the back) and dinners, as well as relaxing on the sofa and chairs provided.

The covered side terrace is our favourite breakfast location. It and the terraced area around the swimming pool are ideal for sun-bathing. A small BBQ is also provided

3 bedrooms (2 en-suite)

The master bedroom, with views to the front of the property is very spacious with twin beds as well as a large fully equipped bathroom (bath and separate shower).

As well as a fitted wardrobe, there is a large chest of drawers

The other two bedrooms are to the rear of the house. One has a double bed and has an en-suite shower room and the other twin beds. Both have pleasant views of the wooded rear garden.

Other Areas

There is a fully equipped kitchen with hob, kettle, small oven/ grill, microwave, large fridge and dish washer. There is also a shower room leading off the entrance hall and a utility room next to the swimming pool in which is a washing machine.

The swimming pool is approximately 9m by 5m and between 1m and 2m deep with easy access 0.5m wide tiled steps
