We visited wonderful small "white villages, mingling with the locals and seeing some non-tourist areas. We find this a really interesting and scenic part of Spain.

The villa could not be faulted, immaculate on arrival, it proved to be a very comfortable and spacious refuge for our sojourn in this beautiful area of Southern Spain. For anyone interested in ornithology, a local walk ... proved rewarding, Balck Redstart, Cettis Warbler, Cirl Bunting, Bonelli's warbler, Little Egret, Purple Heron, Green Sandpiper and Wryneet were all observed.

A New Year trip can and has been wonderful, weather-wise, if a bit chilly in the evenings. Geoff has enjoyed improving his Spanish with interesting conversations with Manolo and Ana, who show great patience!

A peaceful and relaxing retreat that we come back to again and again. Mason May 2008
The most popular trip was to a Campo Biuerto where there is a wonderful display of the bulls and horses as well as impressive dressage demonstrations ... Wouldn't hesitate to come again. Fizios July/Aug 2008
Ana & Manolo became good friends. We hope to return. Jacqueline, Jonathan, Hannah, Jack, Stewart & Sophie Aug 2008
On our 2nd visit ... the extra bedroom meant some other friends could enjoy the villa and the area. Anne, Bob, Keith, Christine, Julie & Maurice Oct 2008
Manolo & Ana are so friendly and welcoming – they make you feel at home as soon as you arrive. Peter and Linda Oct 2008
Our first visit, we found the villa & village very romantic and everything we desired from a week in Spanish country. We would definitely return. Sian, Amanda & Libby July 2009
Another two magical weeks in Jimena. Trips out to Jerez, Ronda and Gibraltar. Dolphin watch was fantastic. The best thing has to be this beautiful house, the peace just sat around and in the pool. Jonathan, Jacqueline and Frank S July/Aug 2009
Our first visit to this peaceful and enchanting corner of Spain. Jimena gave plenty of opportunities to explore and eat out but, in our opinion, nothing beat sitting on the terrace with a BBQ. David & Sarah Aug 2009
Wonderful views and lovely big rooms. We really enjoyed ourselves. Gabriel & Louise Sept 2009
